

SUMMER NIGHTASTIC!

A season of after-dark excitement is coming to all four Theme Parks at the Walt Disney World® Resort.

Returning to the Magic Kingdom® Park in early June 2010 is Disney's "Main Street Electrical Parade", marking its first engagement in Florida since 2001. Plus the night sky will explode in vivid colors and brilliant visual effects as whimsical music fills the air for a limited-time fireworks spectacular.

At Disney's Hollywood Studios™, "The Twilight Zone™ Tower of Terror" will feature new lighting effects created especially for "Summer Nightastic!".

The return of the "Sounds Like Summer" concert series to Epcot® and extended evening hours at Disney's Animal Kingdom® Theme Park several times a week will add up to summer fun as only Disney can do.

What will you celebrate?
