

From Disney Travel Agents

Children's Cruises

On select days, children between the ages of 4 and 12 can enjoy specially themed water cruises offered just for them at participating Walt Disney World® Resorts. These child-only cruises (only the registered children can participate, no adults) are supervised by two Disney guides. All children must be potty-trained (no pull-ups). Each cruise costs $30 USD (plus tax) per qualified child and includes lunch plus a bag of goodies for the children to remember their experience.

To ensure the best experience, reservations are required (up to 180 days in advance) and space is extremely limited on each cruise. To reserve, call 407-WDW-PLAY.

Parent or Guardian must sign a waiver for child's participation. For the safety and welfare of the children, the person signing children in must also be the person signing them out at the end of the experience. Life vests will be provided and required when onboard. Cancellation by Guests within 24-hours may be subject to full charge.*

Albatross Treasure Cruise (Disney's Yacht & Beach Club Resort Marina)

Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 9:30am – 11:30am

Children wear bandanas and follow clues to search Crescent Lake and Epcot's World Showcase Lagoon for map clues. Following these clues they sail to many exotic "ports of call" to collect treasure. During the voyage, the children enjoy a reading of "The Legend of the Albatross." At the final port of call, children will have lunch and split up the "buried treasure."

Disney's Pirate Adventure (Disney's Grand Floridian Resort Marina)

Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, 9:30am – 11:30am

Children wear pirate bandanas and follow clues to search Bay Lake and the Seven Seas Lagoon for buried treasure. Following these clues and the Pirate's trail, they sail to many exotic "ports of call" to collect treasure. During the voyage, the children enjoy a reading of "The Legend of Gasparilla" (a real Florida Pirate). At the final port of call, children have lunch and split up the "buried treasure."

Island of the Caribbean Pirate Cruise (Disney's Caribbean Beach Resort Marina)

Sunday and Tuesday, 9:30am – 11:30am

The young adventurers, with pirate bandanas, will board a boat resembling an old battle relic which will sail the "Ports of the Caribbean". The young pirates will be told the story of Old Port Royale and the pirates that used to sail these waters. In this adventure they find signs leading them to the Treasure. Once found they sail to Fort Cay where they will trade for grub. Upon returning, the Treasure Chest is unlocked and the bounty shared.

Bayou Pirate Adventure (Disney's Port Orleans Resort - Riverside - Levee Marina)

Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday, 9:30am – 11:30am

The young adventurers, with pirate bandanas on their heads, will board a Pirate vessel. Onboard they will learn about the great Pirate named Capt. John Lafitte, the greatest Pirate ever to sail the waters of New Orleans. Legend is that his boat sank on a reef off the coast of Key West. In their adventure they will find a treasure map left behind by Capt. Lafitte which will lead them to his treasure. Once they set sail they will use the clues to find the hidden treasure of which it is theirs to keep.

All pricing, locations, dates, times and entertainment offerings subject to change. All cruises are weather permitting and subject to cancellation.*